3.4 Ranch and Recreation Area Restrictions. The Ranch and Recreation Area shall be used exclusively by the Owner or Owners of the Ranch and Recreation Area for ranching operations including but not limited to animal husbandry and agricultural purposes and such purposes as are customarily incident thereto; and the Owner or Owners of the Ranch and Recreation Area shall be permitted:

(a) To conduct such ranching operations as a commerical activity on the Ranch and Recreation Area;

(b) To construct and maintain on the Ranch and Recreation Area such residential structures as shall be necessary to house the family, servants, ranch employees and occasional guests of the Owner or Owners of the Ranch and Recreation Area and such structures as are necessary or customarily found on ranches and farms including, without limitation, barns, silos, sheds, outbuildings, corrals and pens, provided that the same shall be adjacent to or in the vicinity of existing structures and improvements, shall not substantially impair or impede the view from a Lot or Multiple Unit Parcel, and shall not otherwise unreasonably interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Lots and Multiple Unit Parcels by their respective Owners;

(c) To construct and maintain Perimeter Fences;

(d) To keep and maintain livestock and farm animals on the Ranch and Recreation Area so long as reasonable means are taken to keep such livestock and animals within the boundaries of the Ranch and Recreation Area and off the Lots and Multiple Unit Parcels; and

(e) To keep, store and use on and upon the Ranch and Recreation Area all types and kinds of vehicles, tractors, equipment and tools necessary or customarily found on ranches and farms.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Ranch and Recreation area may be used for any purpose permitted by, but subject to the provisions of, the Recreation Lease as the same may be from time to time amended, modified, extended, and revised by the parties, their respective successors and assigns.

3.5 Roads. Roads shall be used for roadway and street purposes subject to the rules and regulations of the Association and shall be maintained by the Association as hereinafter provided.

4.5 Action by Design Committee. The vote or written consent of any two members shall constitute action of the Design Committee. The Design Committee shall constitute all approvals and disapprovals of any changes in the Existing State of Property to Declarant or to the Association, whichever then has the right to appoint and remove a majority of the members and Declarant or the Association, as the case may be, shall keep a permanent record of all such reports.

4.4 Meeting. The Design Committee shall meet from time to time as necessary to perform its duties properly.

4.3 Duties. It shall be the duty of the Design Committee to consider and act upon all proposed Charter's on the Existing State of Property, to formulate Design Committee Criteria, and to perform such other duties as are delegated to it and act under or under any Supplemental Declaration.

4.2 Term. Each of the persons designated as a member or alternative member of the Design Committee shall serve until such time as he has resigned by giving written notice of his resignation to Declarant or to the Association, who ever has the right to remove him as a member or alternative member, or until he has been removed or his successor has been appointed.

Article 4

4.6 Limitation on Liability. Neither the Design Committee nor any Member thereof, nor the Association, nor any director, officer, nor Declarant nor any agent or employee of any of the foregoing shall be liable to any party for any action or for any failure to act under or pursuant to or with respect to any provision of this Declaration provided only that the person or entity sought to be charged with any liability shall have acted in good faith.

Article 5

Required Approval of All Changes

5.1 Change in the Existing State of Property. "Change in the Existing State of Property" shall mean and include, without limitation, the construction or reconstruction of any building, structure or other improvement, including utility facilities, the making or creation of any excavation, fill or similar disturbance of the surface of land including, without limitation, change of grade, stream bed, ground level or drainage pattern; the clearing, marring, defacing or damaging of trees, shrubs or other growing things; the landscaping or planting of trees, shrubs, lawns or plants; or any change, alteration or refinishing, including without limitation, any change of color, texture or exterior appearance, of any previously approved Change in the Existing State of Property, insofar as the same shall apply to any Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel or each parcel of property under any other land classification designation specified in any Supplemental Declaration, but in no event with respect to the Ranch and Recreation Area.

5.2 Approval of Change in Existing State Required. No Change in the Existing State of Property shall be made or permitted, except by Declarant, without the prior written approval of the Design Committee and without compliance with this Article 5. The following paragraphs of this Article 5 shall not be applicable to any Change in the Existing State of Property undertaken by Declarant or any duly authorized agent or representative of Declarant.

5.3 Design Committee Approval. The Design Committee shall have complete discretion to approve or disapprove any Change in the Existing State of Property. The Design Committee shall exercise such discretion with the following objectives in mind: to carry out the general purposes expressed in this Declaration; to prevent violation of any specific provision of this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration; to prevent any change which would be unsafe or hazardous to any persons or property; to minimize, as in the sole discretion of the Design Committee is reasonable under the circumstances, obstruction or diminution of the view of others; to preserve visual continuity of the area and to prevent a marked or unnecessary transition between improved and unimproved areas and any sharp definition of boundaries of property ownership; to assure that any change will be of good and attractive design and in harmony with the rustic and natural setting of the area and will serve to preserve and enhance existing features of natural beauty; to avoid duplication; to assure that materials and workmanship for all improvements are of high quality comparable to other improvements in the area; and to assure that any change will require as little inconvenience as possible so as to assure a better appraising area under all conditions.

expenses of review. Prior to giving approval to a proposed Change in the Existing State of Property, at least one member of the Design Committee shall physically inspect the Property. No proposed Change in the Existing State of Property shall be deemed to have been approved by the Design Committee unless its approval is in writing executed by at least two members of the Design Committee provided that approval shall be deemed given if the Design Committee fails to approve or disapprove a proposed Change in the Existing State of Property or to make additional requirements or request additional information within 45 days after a full and complete description of the proposed Change in the Existing State of Property has been furnished in writing to the Design Committee with a written and specific request for approval.

5.6 Prosecution of Work After Approval. After approval by the Design Committee, any proposed Change in the Existing State of Property shall be accomplished as promptly and diligently as possible and in substantial conformity with the description of the proposed Change in the Existing State of Property and with any plans and specifications therefor given to the Design Committee. Failure to accomplish the Change in the Existing State of Property within one year after the date of approval or to complete the proposed Change in the Existing State of Property substantially in conformity with the description thereof and plans and specifications therefor shall operate to automatically revoke the approval of the proposed Change in the Existing State of Property and, upon demand by the Design Committee, the Property shall be restored as nearly as possible to its state existing prior to any work in connection with the proposed Change in the Existing State of Property. The Design Committee and its duly appointed agents may enter upon any property at any reasonable time or times to inspect the progress or status of any Change in the Existing State of Property being made or which may have been made.

5.7 Failure to Comply. If the Design Committee shall find that any Change in the Existing State of Property shall have been undertaken without the approval of the Design Committee in violation of the provisions of this Article 5, it shall immediately notify the Association which shall have the right to remove any such Change in the Existing State of Property at the sole cost and expense of the Owner or Owners of the Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, or other parcel of Property.

If the Design Committee shall find that a Change in the Existing State of Property was not completed in substantial conformity with the description thereof and any plans and specifications therefor as approved by the Design Committee, the Design Committee shall notify the Owner or Owners of such noncompliance and require remedy of such noncompliance. If within sixty (60) days from the date of such notification, the Owner or Owners shall have failed to remedy the noncompliance, the Design Committee shall notify the Association which shall have the right, at its option, to remove the Change in the Existing State of Property or to remedy the noncompliance, in either case at the sole cost and expense of the Owner or Owners of the Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, or other parcel of property.

6.1 Variances by Design Committee. The Design Committee may authorize variances from compliance with any of the Coverants contained in this Declarat ion or any Supplemental Declarat ion when circumstances such as topo graphy, natural obstructions or hardship may require; provided, however, that such variances shall be authorized in conformat y with the intent and purposes of this Declarat ion and provided further that in every instance such variance must be material or injurious to the other property covered by this Declar at ion. Such variances must be evidenced in writing.

APPENDICES

Article 6

5.10 Presumption of Completion of Compliance. All of the Changes in the Existing State of Property heretofore or hereafter undertaken by Defendant or his agents or representatives on any Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, or any Parcels of property under any other Land Classification specified in any Supplemental Declaration shall be conclusively presumed in compliance with the provisions of this Article 5.

5.9 Waiver. The approval of the Design Committee of the Plans and specifications for any Change in the Existing State of Property shall not be deemed to be a waiver by the Design Committee of its rights to object to any of the features or elements embodied in any other plans and specifications for another Change in the Existing State of Property, nor shall such approval be construed as in any manner modifying, altering or waiving any of the provisions in any Supplemental Declaration.

5.8 Certificates and Notices. Upon request of the Owner, the Design Committee shall record a certificate of completion and compliance upon completion of the Change in Existing State of Property after having inspected the Change in the Existing State of Property and having noticed that the Change has been automatically revoked as provided in Section 5.6.

Article 7

Association

7.1 General Purposes and Powers. The Association has been formed by Declarant as a nonprofit Wyoming corporation by the filing of the Articles. Its affairs shall be governed by the Articles and By-Laws. The Association shall be obligated and shall assume and perform all functions and obligations imposed on it or contemplated for it under this Declaration and any similar functions or obligations imposed on it or contemplated for it under any Supplemental Declaration. The Association shall have all powers necessary or desirable to effectuate these purposes.

7.2 Dissolution. In the event that the Association as a corporate entity is dissolved, a nonprofit, unincorporated association shall forthwith and without further action or notice be formed and succeed to all rights and obligations of the Association hereunder. Said unincorporated association shall govern its affairs in accordance with the laws of the State of Wyoming and, to the extent not inconsistent therewith, by the Articles and the By-Laws, respectively, as if they were created for the purpose of governing the affairs of an unincorporated association. In the event of such dissolution, each Member of the Association shall be a member of the unincorporated association, shall have an equal, underlying beneficial interest in all of the Association's property transferred to or for the account or benefit of said unincorporated association in direct proportion to the number of Lots or Dwelling Units owned by such member; provided, however, that there shall be no judicial partition of such property or any part thereof, nor shall any such member or other person acquiring any interest in said property, or any part thereof, seek any such judicial partition. Immediately prior to such dissolution, the Association shall convey all real property vested in it to a title company or other independent trustee for the benefit of the unincorporated association and for the benefit of its members.

7.3 Duties of Association. The Association shall, in addition to such obligations, duties and functions as are assigned to it by other provisions of this Declaration and any Supplemental Declarations, have the obligations, duties and functions to do and perform each of the following for the benefit of the Owners, and members, and for the maintenance, administration and improvement of the subject property, the Association Property, the Recreational Facilities, the Common Areas or any other property as may be required or appropriate:

(a) Receive, Hold and Maintain Property. The Association shall be obligated to and shall accept title to any real property or interest therein, including improvements thereon, or to any personal property or equipment, when, as and if granted or furnished by Declarant. The Association shall also be obligated to and shall accept the benefits and burdens associated with any licenses, easements, leases or other instruments conveying rights in and to real property made by Declarant, including without limitation the benefits and burdens of a tenant under the Recreation Lease. In each and every instance, the Association

(d) Taxes. To the extent not assessed to or paid by Owners, the Association shall pay all real property taxes and assessments levied on the Association Property or required to be paid by the Association under the Recession Agreement. It is the intent of this Declaration that the Association enjoys the benefits of such Owner's Lot or Dwelling Unit, is an interest in real property (in the nature of an equitable servitude) on a proportionate basis.

(C) Insurance Function. The Association shall be obligated to and shall obtain and keep in full force and effect at all times at least the following insurance coverage. The Association shall obtain causality insurance with respect to all insurable property of the Association insuring the full replacement value of all insurable property for fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief. The Association shall obtain broad form comprehensive liability coverage, covering both public liability and automobile liability, with limits of not less than $1,000,000 for each person and not less than $2,000,000 for each occurrence and with property damage limits of not less than $500,000 for each accident. All insurance may contain such deductible provisions as good business practice may dictate. All insurance may name the Association and Declarant as additional insureds and shall, to the extent reasonably possible, cover each owner of a lot, multiple unit parcel or other parcel, without any such owner necessarily being specifically named. The Association shall provide Declaration, upon request, with certified copies of the insurance policies of the insurance companies with which certifies evidencing such insurance and copies of the insurance policies.

(b) Road and Easement Maintenance Function. Consistent with the Design Committee Criteria as they apply to such matters, the Association shall be obligated to and shall provide for the best and highest quality care, operation, maintenance, management, repair and replacement of all Roads and shall further be obligated to and shall provide for the best and highest quality care, operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of all Easements established or provided for some of all Owners, and of any and all Roads and drainage easements and drainage pipes or facilities within the same which may be established or provided for all Owners, and of any and all Roads and drainage easements established or provided for all Owners, and of any and all Roads and drainage easements and drainage pipes or facilities within the same which may be established or provided for all Owners.

basis copurtenant to each Lot or Dwelling Unit, the value of the interest of each Owner in such Association Property (and of certain Dwelling Unit Owners in limited common areas) shall be included in the tax assessment for each such Lot or Dwelling Unit and as a result any assessment directly against such Association Property as limited common area should be of a nominal nature reflecting that the full value of the same should be included in the several assessments of the various Lots and Dwelling Units.

(e) Police: Refuse Disposal. Unless provided by a municipal, county or other governmental body and unless the cost thereof is assessed directly or indirectly against the Owners by such body, the Association shall contract for, employ and otherwise provide for security and refuse disposal services.

(f) Reserved Rights With Respect to Property Furnished by Declarant. Association Property furnished by Declarant to the Association may be and shall be deemed conveyed, granted or furnished subject to then existing easements for utilities, including gas, electricity, water, sewer, telephone, television and intercommunication, alarm or other systems; easements for drainage and drainage facilities; easements for ingress, egress and access for the benefit of any property, whether or not subject to this Declaration; and shall be deemed subject to and deemed accepted by the Association subject to an exception and reservation by Declarant, whether or not expressed at the time, of the right, power and authority to thereafter create and grant any such easements and to enter upon and further improve or develop any such property, at its own cost and expense, for the benefit of Declarant, the Association or of any of its Members.

(g) No Sale or Abandonment of Property Furnished By Declarant. No Association Property conveyed, granted or furnished by Declarant to the Association may be, and any such real property or interest therein shall be deemed conveyed, granted or furnished, whether or not expressed in the deed or instrument of conveyance or grant, on and subject to the condition that it shall not be sold, conveyed, leased, transferred, abandoned or disposed of by the Association without the written consent of Declarant. No improvements on real property granted or furnished by Declarant to the Association may be destroyed, permitted to deteriorate or waste, or disposed of by the Association without the written consent of Declarant unless a suitable and adequate replacement or substitute is constructed, purchased or acquired by the Association which replacement or substitute shall be deemed to be property furnished by Declarant.

(h) Governmental Successor. Any property or facility owned or held by the Association and any function or activity required to be performed by the Association under the terms of this Declaration may be turned over to a governmental authority which is willing to accept and assume the same upon such terms and conditions as the Association shall deem to be appropriate.

(i) Rule Making. To make, establish, promulgate, amend and repeal regulations and policies to carry out its duties, powers, purposes and authori-

(e) Right to Make Rules and Regulations. The Association shall be authorized to and shall have the power to adopt and enforce rules and regulations to regulate use of any and all facilities and property of the Association to assure fullest enjoyment and use by the persons entitled to enjoy and use the same, provided that such rules and regulations shall not be in conflict with this Declaration, any Supplemental Declaration or the Recreation Lease. The Association may provide for enforcement of any such rules and regulations through reasonable and uniformly applied fines and penalties, through exclusion of violators from property and facilities of the Association or otherwise. Each Owner, members of his family and his tenants, guests and invitees shall be obligated to comply with and abide by any such rules and regulations.

(f) Right to Prosecute Actions. The Association shall have the power and authority from time to time, in its own name, on its own behalf or on behalf of any Owner or Owners who consent thereto, to commence and maintain actions and suits in law and in equity to restrain any breach or threatened breach of this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration and to enforce, by mandatory injunction or otherwise, all of the provisions of this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration.

(g) Insurance. To obtain, maintain and pay for such insurance policies or bonds, whether or not required by any provision of the Declaration, or any By-Laws, as the Association shall deem to be appropriate for the protection or benefit of the Owners, their tenants or guests, including, but without limitation, fire and extended coverage insurance covering the Association Property, liability insurance, workmen's compensation insurance, malicious mischief insurance, automobile non-ownership insurance, and performance and fidelity bonds.

(h) Utility Service. To contract and pay for, or otherwise provide for, utility services, including, but without limitation, water, sewer, garbage, electrical, telephone and gas services.

(i) Road Maintenance. To contract and pay for, or otherwise provide for, the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance, snow removal, replacement or refinishing of any roads, drives or other paved areas upon any portion of the subject property.

(j) Protective Services. To contract and pay for, or otherwise provide for, fire, and such other protective services as the Association shall from time to time deem appropriate for the benefit of the Owners, their tenants and guests.

(k) General Contracts. To contract and pay for, or otherwise to the benefits and subject to the burdens relating to the Regular Membership for such property. If fee simple title to a Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, Dwelling Unit or other parcel of property, as aforesaid, is held by more than one person or entity, the Regular Membership appurtenant to that property shall be shared by all such persons or entities in the same proportionate interest and by the same type of ownership in which fee simple title to that property is held. Membership in the Association shall be limited to Owners of Lots, Multiple Unit Parcels, Dwelling Units or other parcels of property as aforesaid except as hereinafter specifically provided with respect to the Special Membership of Declarant.

8.2 Declarant Special Membership. In addition to any Regular Membership held by it, Declarant shall, during the Declarant's development period, have and be deemed to hold a Special Membership in the Association without regard to whether Declarant is the Owner of a Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, Dwelling Unit or other parcel of property under any other land classification designation specified in a Supplemental Declaration. As the holder of this Special Membership, Declarant shall be entitled to notice of all meetings of Regular Members of the Association and shall be entitled to speak and be heard at any such meetings and shall have a vote equal to the vote of the Owner of one Lot on all matters submitted to a vote of Regular Members. As the holder of this Special Membership, Declarant shall also have the power and authority to designate sixty percent (60%) of the members of the Board of Directors of the Association until the second annual meeting of Regular Members of the Association and for two years thereafter; the power and authority to designate forty percent (40%) of the members of the Board for the following three years; and the power and authority to designate at least one (1) member of the Board of the Association for the following nine (9) years, or until the termination of Declarant's development period, such designations to be made at least annually and immediately following election of members of the Board by Regular Members of the Association. As holder of this Special Membership, the approval of Declarant shall be required as a condition to merger, consolidation or dissolution of the Association. Except as herein stated, Declarant, as the holder of this Special Membership, shall have no other rights and be subject to no other obligations by reason of such Special Membership.

8.3 Board of Directors. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) persons. The Board of Directors may, however, delegate any portion of its authority, by resolution, to an Executive Committee, or to an Executive Manager or Director for the Association. Members of the Board of Directors, other than those designated by Declarant, shall be elected annually by the Members.

8.4 Voting of Members. Each Regular Member shall have one vote for each Lot, each Multiple Unit Parcel prior to construction on a Multiple Unit Parcel, each Dwelling Unit after construction of improvements thereon, and each parcel of property under any other land classification designation specified in a Supplemental Declaration, in the election of members of the Board of Directors of the Association, other than members to be designated by Declarant, and in all other

8.7 Annual Meetings. The first annual meeting of the Association shall be held in Teton County, Wyoming, within ninety (90) days after fifty-one percent (51%) of the Lots and/or Dwelling Units located on the Subject Property have been sold. Thereafter, the annual meetings of the Association shall be held within thirty (30) days of the anniversary date of the first annual meeting in each year.

8.6 Liaibility of Member of Board. No member of the Board of Directors of the Association nor any representative, agent or employee thereof shall be personally liable to any Owner, Multiple Unit Association, Declarant or any other person for any error or omission of the Association, its representatives, agents and employees; provided, however, that the member of the Board or such other person shall have acted in good faith.

8.5 Notices of Meetings. A member shall be entitled to at least thirty days' notice of all meetings in which a vote of Member is to be taken and of the amount of all assessments which the Member is obliged to pay. Notice shall be considered given when written notice is mailed or telegraphed to a Member addressed to the Member under the name and address for the Member furnished by the Association and, in any event shall be deemed given when the Member actually receives notice. If a Member fails to furnish a name or address to the Association to which notices may be mailed, the Association shall be entitled to give notice by mail, telegraph or delivery of a written notice to the address of such Member's property, addressed "Care of Owner".

matter's submitted to the vote of Regular Members. In all voting by Members, voting by proxy shall be allowed and permitted, and in all voting for members of the Board cumulative voting shall be allowed and permitted.

9.2 General Assessments. General assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote recreation, health, safety and welfare of the Owners and Members, and other residents of the Subject Property, the improvement, operation and maintenance of the Association Property and the property, subject to the Recreation Lease; the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers of the Association as set forth herein; the payment of proper expenses of the Association and all costs incurred in the performance, by the Association of its duties and exercise by it of its powers, and the establishment of reasonable reserves for the maintenance, repair and replacement of roads, drives, Association Property, the Recreation Facilities, common utilities and services, and other improvements on the subject property.

(a) Assessments. Each holder of a Regular Membership in the Association shall be obligated to pay and shall pay to the Association, at least annually, but in more frequent installments if required by the Board of Directors of the Association, an equal pro rata share of the total amount to be raised each year by General Assessments as determined in accordance with the next Section of this Declaration.

(b) Determination of Total Amount of General Assessments. The total amount of General Assessment required to be raised for the Association shall be determined at least annually in accordance with the following procedure. The Board of Directors of the Association shall prepare a budget covering at least a one-year period, showing, in reasonable detail, the various functions and matters proposed to be covered by the General Budget, including but not limited to rent and other payments under the Recreation Lease, construction or replacement of any capital improvements on Association Property, Roads, or elsewhere (not including similar or other expenses associated solely with Multiple Unit Parcels), showing the estimated costs and expenses of such functions or matters, showing the estimated income and other funds which may be received by the Association, and showing the estimated that amount of Assessments required to cover costs and expenses and to provide a reasonable reserve; shall call a meeting of the Members and give thirty (30) days' notice of the time and place thereof to all such Members; and shall furnish a copy of the budget to all such Members at least 30 days prior to such meetings. The total amount to be raised by Assessments shall be that amount necessary to cover the costs and expenses of functions required to be undertaken or performed by the Association under this Declaration and to fulfill any and all long-term or continuing commitments of the Association made in connection with or contemplated under any previously approved budget plus such additional amount, if any, determined or approved by the majority of the Members either at or after such meeting. The Association shall, except as emergencies may require, make no commitment or expenditures in excess of the funds reasonably expected to be available to the Association.

9.3 Multiple Unit Parcel Assessments. In addition to the foregoing General Assessments, the Association may levy annual assessments which shall be

All assessments are annual assessments; however, the Board may provide for collection of the same in monthly, quarterly or semi-annual instalments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon default in the payment of any one instalment, the entire balance of said annual assessment may be accelerated at the option of the Board and be declared due and payable in full.

9.5 Commentary of Assessments/Default. The first Assessment may be made on the first day of the month following the closing of a Land Lot or a Dwelling Unit located on a Multiple Unit Parcel or other parcel of land under any classification specified in a Supplemental Declaration or at any time thereafter as determined by the Board of Directors of the Association.

General Annual Assessments provided above, the Board may levy, in any assessment for Capital Improvements. In addition to the General Annual Assessments provided above, the Board may levy, in any assessment for Capital Improvements for the purpose of repairing in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of a capital improvement of a dwelling unit or by proxy at a meeting duly called for such purpose and the special members.

(b) Multiple Unit Parcel Special Assessments for Capital Improvements. In addition to the foregoing Annual Assessment authorized above, the Association may levy in any assessment year, a Special Assessment against dweller units within a Multiple Unit Parcel for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon the parcel, provided that any such assessment shall have the effect to the owners of dwelling units who are assessent of two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of the Owners of dwelling units who are voting in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

(c) Method of Assessment. The assessment shall be levied by the Association against dwelling units in a Multiple Unit Parcel if convened, or on the parcel itself if improvements are not completed and convened, using the basis set forth in the Supplemental Declaration for the given parcel. The Board shall, unusually, fix the Multiple Unit Parcel Assessment for each parcel with the advice of the Owners of dwelling units therein, or a Multiple Unit Parcel Committee created in the manner provided for in the By-Laws; provided that each such assessment shall be sufficient to meet the obligations imposed by this Declaration and the Supplemental Declaration of that parcel. Each Owner of a completed dwelling unit in a Multiple Unit Parcel or the parcel itself, if no units are completed and convened, shall pay a proportionate share of the total amount to be raised each year by said Multiple Unit Parcel Assessment. The method of determining the assessment shall be generally, as set forth in subsection 9.2 (b) above.

used for such purposes as are authorized by any Supplemental Declaration for a given Multiple Unit Parcel.

9.6 Lien for Assessments and Other Amounts. The Association shall have a lien against each Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel if no improvements are constructed thereon, Dwelling Unit on a Multiple Unit Parcel if improvements are constructed thereon, and parcel of property under any other land classification designation established by a Supplemental Declaration (but in no event against the Ranch and Recreation Area) to secure payment of any Assessment, charge, fine, penalty or other amount due to the Association from the Owner of that property which is not paid, plus interest from the date of demand for payment at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum, plus all costs and expenses of collecting the unpaid amount, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon recordation in the Office of the County Clerk of Teton County, Wyoming, of a Notice of Lien which shall state the amount, a description of the property and the name of the Owner thereof and upon the deposit in the United States Mail, certified or registered, postage prepaid, to the Owner a copy of such notice. The lien may be foreclosed in the manner for foreclosure of Mortgages in the State of Wyoming.

9.7 Personal Liability of Member. The amount of any Assessment, charge, fine or penalty payable by an Owner shall be a joint and several personal obligation to the Association of the persons or entities who constitute the Owner at the time the amount was payable, their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns and may be recovered by a suit for the money judgment by the Association without foreclosing or waiving any lien securing the same.

9.8 Liability of Purchasers and Encumbrances. A purchaser of any property subject to this Declaration shall be jointly and severally liable with the seller of the property for all unpaid Assessments, charges, fines or penalties with respect to the Owner of the property, or the Membership appurtenant thereto, which had accrued or were payable at the time of the grant or conveyance of the property to such purchaser, without prejudice to such purchaser's right to recover any of said amounts paid by the purchaser from the seller. No holder of a lien or encumbrance on any property shall be personally liable for any such Assessment, charge, fine or penalty and the lien for such assessments, charges, fines or penalties shall be junior to any lien or encumbrance on any property taken or acquired in good faith and for value without notice and perfected by recording prior to the time a notice of failure to pay any such amount is recorded in the Office of the County Clerk of Teton County, Wyoming, against the property.

9.9 Estoppel Certificate. Upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed $25 and upon written request of any person with an interest in any property subject to this Declaration or intending to acquire an interest in such property, the Association shall furnish a written statement setting forth the amount of any unpaid Assessments, charges, fines or penalties, if any, with respect to the Owner of the property, or the Membership appurtenant thereto, and the amount of the current yearly Assessments payable with respect to the property, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association.

10.2 Drainage. There is hereby reserved to Declarant a non-exclusive easement for drainage of surface waters from portions of the Subject Property across other portions of the Subject Property. Said drainage shall conform to a development plan as it is developed by Declarant. Said drainage shall be limited to reasonable amounts of water and shall be so designed and constructed so as not to materially interfere with the development of the Subject Property, use and enjoyment of the portions of the property adjacent to the drainage, or the property owned by owners who will be affected by any such alteration, modification or alteration, modified or changed as to any part of the Subject Property without the consent of the Owners who will be affected by any such alteration, modification or change.

10.1 Easement for Utilities. There is hereby reserved to Declarant a non-exclusive easement for the purpose of maintaining, replacing and enlarging utility services as required for the purpose of maintaining, replacing and enlarging utility services as shall have the right of reasonable access to the Subject Property or any part of a Ranch and Recreational Area, as well as Declarant as Owner of the Ranch and Recreational Area, under any other land classification designated in any supplemental Declaration, of a Lot, a Dwelling Unit or a Multiple Unit Parcel, and each parcel of property under any other land classification designated in any supplemental Declaration. Each Owner shall have the right of reasonable access to the Subject Property or any part of a Ranch and Recreational Area and each parcel of property under any other land classification provided service to any Lot, any Multiple Unit Parcel, any Dwelling Unit, thereforefor the use of such right of access shall be exercised in such manner so as not to materially inconvenience or interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Subject Property or any part thereof further than is necessary to impair or interfere with availability or service of such utilities to its users.

9.11 Abandonment of Failure to Use. No Owner subject to Assessments, charges, fines or penalties herunder may exempt himself from liability to promote by such Assessments, charges, fines or penalties or by abandonment of his property.

9.10 Declarant. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Declarant shall not, by virtue of its holding a Special Membership in the Association, be subject thereto to any Assessment, charge, fine or penalty payable as provided in this Declaration, and the Ranch and Recreational Area shall in no event be subject to any lien for any Assessment, charge, fine or penalty payable by Declarant as Owner of any Lot, Multiple Unit Parcel, Dwelling Unit or other parcel of property under any other land classification specified in any supplemental Declaration.

Article 10

Property Rights

10.3 Roads. Each Owner of a Lot, a Dwelling Unit on a Multiple Unit Parcel, and each parcel of property under any other land classification designation specified in any Supplemental Declaration, as well as Declarant as Owner of the Ranch and Recreation Area, shall have a non-exclusive easement appurtenant to his property of ingress and egress over and on all Roads. Each Owner may delegate his right under said non-exclusive easement for the benefit of his family, his tenants, servants, employees, agents, guests and invitees, and any contract purchasers of the property to which said non-exclusive easement is appurtenant.

10.4 Members' Easements of Enjoyment. Every member of the Association shall as Owner of one or more Lots or Units have a right and non-exclusive easement of use and enjoyment in and to all Association Property, property interests, and Recreational Facilities owned or held by the Association. Such right and easement shall be appurtenant to and shall pass with the title to every Lot and Dwelling Unit subject to the following limitations:

→ (a) The right of the Association to limit the number of guests, and to adopt Association Rules regulating the use and enjoyment of the same.

(b) The right of the Association to suspend the voting rights and right to use of the same by a member (i) for any period during which any Assessment against such Member's Lot or Dwelling Unit remains delinquent, and (ii) for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days after notice and hearing as may be provided for in the By-Laws for any infraction of the Association Rules.

(c) The right of the Association to dedicate or transfer all or any part of the same to any public agency, authority, or utility for the purpose of providing utilities and similar related purposes. No such dedication or transfer shall be effective unless an instrument has been approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of the entire Membership and may be subject to such conditions as such percentage of the Members may designate in conjunction with such dedication or transfer. During Declarant's Development Period, any such dedication or transfer shall be effected only if approved in writing by Declarant.

10.5 Delegation of Use. The Owner of any Lot or Dwelling Unit may delegate to any occupant of the same the right to the use and enjoyment of the said facilities and any privilege appurtenant to such Dwelling Unit or the Lot on which the same is located to use and enjoy any Limited Common Areas.

10.6 Parking Rights. The use of parking areas (if any) within the Association Properties or any Limited Common Area, together with the terms and conditions with regard to such use, shall be subject to and at all times governed by the Association Rules as the same are in effect from time to time.

10.7 Easements of Enjoyment for Limited Common Areas. Every Member of the Association designated in the Declaration or any Supplemental 11.1 Duration of Declaration. Any provision, covenant, condition or restriction contained in this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration shall be covenants running with the land for the use and benefit of the Lots, Dwelling Units, Association Property and Limited Elements, and shall continue and remain in full force and effect for the period of twenty (20) years following the date of recording after which time they shall continue automatically for successive periods of ten (10) years, unless, at least one year prior to the expiration of any such period, this Declaration is terminated by recorded instrument directing termination signed by the Owners of not less than two-thirds (2/3) in area of the Real Property.

11.2 Amendment or Revocation. At any time while any provision, covenant, condition and restriction contained in this Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration is in force and effect, it may be amended or repealed, by the recording of a written instrument specifying the amendment or the repeal, executed by the Owners of not less than two-thirds (2/3) in area of the Subject Property; provided, however, that during the Declarant's Development Period no Declarant Related Amendment shall be made to this Declaration or to any By-Law or Document, nor shall any Declarant Related Document be executed, adopted or promulgated by the Association or the Board unless such Declarant Related Amendment or Document shall be specifically approved in writing by Declarant.

For purposes of subsection, an Amendment or Document which does any of the following shall be considered to be Declarant Related:

- (a) Discriminates or tends to discriminate against a Declarant or any successor Declarant as an Owner or otherwise.
- (b) Directly or indirectly by its provisions or in practical application relates to any Declarant or any successor Declarant in a manner different from the manner in which it relates to other Owners.
- (c) Modifies the definitions provided for in this Declaration in a manner which alters Declarant's or any successor Declarant's rights or status.
- (d) Modifies or repeals any provision of Article 2 of this Declaration.
- (e) Alters the character and rights of membership as provided for in this Declaration or affects or modifies in any manner whatsoever the rights of Declarant or any successor Declarant as a member of the Association.
- (f) Alters any previously recorded or written agreement with any public or quasi-public agencies, utility company, political subdivisions, public authorities or other similar agencies or bodies, respecting zoning suspension,

In addition to the foregoing, no such amendment or repeal shall be effective with respect to any Mortgagee or successor of any Mortgagee under a Mortgage recorded prior to recording of the instrument specifying the amendment or repeal unless such Mortgagee or successor executes the said instrument.

During the period of the Declarant's Development Period, no action may be taken by the Board, the Design Committee or the Association applicable to the Declarant or any of the Lots, tracts or units owned by the Declarant such action shall be approved in writing by the Declarant.

(i) Alters or repeals any of Declarant's or any successor Declarant's rights or any provision applicable to Declarant's or any successor Declarant's rights as provided for by any provision of this Declaration or of any other document applicable to Declarant.

(k) Alters the provisions of any protective covenants, limitations, restrictions or easements as provided for by any Supplemental Declaration.

(l) Limits or restricts the authority of the Design Committee or the right of the Declarant exclusively to nominate members of said committee.

(m) Modifies the provisions hereof regarding design control as applicable to the Declarant or any successor Declarant.

(n) Modifies the basis or manner of assessment, as applicable to the Declarant or any successor Declarant, units or other land qualification provided for in a Supplemental Declaration, owned by Declarant or any successor Declarant.

(g) Denies the right of Declarant or any successor Declarant to convey to the Association as Common Areas, Roads, Ranch and Recreational Area or as limited Common Areas any lands which lie generally within the area surrounding the subject property.
